MLS® —3536 Red Creek Rd—Canim Lake , BC $478,000

Only for the outdoor enthusiast who wants to live a dream in the wilderness close to beautiful Canim Lake and Wells Gray Provincial Park.

If this is your dream of a life-style—to live as a self supporter—grow your own vegetables and fruits, have your chicken or other smaller animals run free and happy. This place is it for you. This well built log home is just around the corner of beautiful Canim Lake—you have all the amenities of the most gorgeous lake without paying the taxes for a waterfront property. Get your boat in at the public access with own dock, go fishing or enjoy all boating amusements. This area is blessed with a mild climate. Sunshine galore—not only in Summer. Wintertime in the Cariboo is a real Winter wonderland—sparkling snow crystals and peace all over. The only reason why our sellers want to sell, is being close to their family with a new grandchild. They love this place and if you come out and have a look, you will know why.

If you are a ready-to-act-Buyer—come and see this beautiful home—ready for you to move in.

The property is located at the south east end of Canim Lake—foot steps away from Wells Gray Provincial Park in the South Cariboo—one of the most beautiful places of our beautiful British Columbia
